AUGUST 10 - 23, 2026

Orchestra / Chamber music workshops and concerts
Chief conductor: Josep Caballé Domenech
Artistic director: Jan Vogler
Academy director: Mira Wang

The Moritzburg Festival, under the artistic direction of the cellist Jan Vogler, is one of the most significant chamber music festivals in the world. Launched in 2006, the Moritzburg Festival Academy enjoys a reputation as a place of excellence, delivering focused musicality and inspirational creativity at their highest. Every year, young musicians from all over the world are chosen to participate in the Academy and form the Moritzburg Festival Orchestra. All participants benefit from a full scholarship and from the guidance of internationally renowned Festival soloists, who give an essential impulse to their artistic development in the idyllic setting of Moritzburg near Dresden.
